HAUTS-DE-FRANCE: A SMART, SUSTAINABLE AND CONNECTED REGION

In Hauts-de-France, we call our 3rd industrial revolution : rev3.

Rev3 is the regional master plan launched in 2013 with Jeremy Rifkin, in partnership with the private sector, local authorities, clusters, universities and citizens. With all the possibilities offered by digital technologies and the energy transition we aim to move towards a society and an economy that are more responsible, sustainable, collaborative and, better connected.
